The damage is mostly by water to both haliding and stock, and the loss will not be heavy.

He paid an eloquent tribute to Virginia and the great men she had given to the nation and the world, concluding with a splendid eulogy on General Lee and his devotion to duty, which should be the watchword of the Democrats in this campaign.

Anti-Bendheim Democrats.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.) ALEXANDRIA, VA., October 29.—The anti-Bendheim' Democrats met in conven tion in this city to-day at noon. Ten dele gates from Alexandria city and three from Alexandria county, who were chosen at the primary on Wednesday last, were present. In the alisence of City Chairman Barley, who would take no part in the Barley, who would take no part in the convention, County Chairman William N. Febrey called the convention to order, and Mr. R. R. Feltch, of Alexandria, county, was chosen temporary chairman. A recess was then taken to allow the committees to prepare their reports. On the reassembling of the convention Mr. John G. Beckham was elected chairman and Mr. John W. May secretary. After adopting a series of resolutions stating that the convention that nominated Mr. Bendhelm did not represent the Democrats of this city and county; that this was the regular Democratic convention, Mr. James R. Caton was unanimously chosen as the candidate for the House of Delegates.

Mr. Caton, in his address declined the honor conferred upon him in order that the two wings of the party might come together and harmony prevail. While the action of Mr. Caton is warmly commented on all sides it was a great surprise to all, as every one thought that he had gone into the fight to stay. The withdrawal of Mr. Caton assures Mr. Bendhelm's return to the Legislature. Instructed for Fitz Lee.

The Shenandoah Democratic Legislative Convention held on the 17th instant, after nominating Captain J. G. Neff for the House, passed a resolution unanimously endorsing General Fitzhugh Lee for the United States Senate.

Mr. R. A. Crump, (familiarly known as Jouley, a well-known citizen of Fifth Ware, is critically ill.)
